White Plains, N. T., Aug. 4.—The state rested in the Thaw case today and from now on it devolves upon Harry K. Thaw and his attorney, Charles Morschauser, to offset the testimony of the state alienists who have sworn without exception under the cross examination of District Attorney Jerome, that Thaw is still insane and would be a menace to the community if released from the asylum at Matteawan.

John B. Gleason, Thaw's original legal adviser after the shooting of Stanford White, came to Thaw's aid late of his afternoon and cleared up a few old mysteries, sweeping away some of Thaw's apparent vagaries upon which Mr. Jerome has dwelt so persistently.

Thaw's apparent vagaries upon which Mr. Jerome has dwelt so persistently. Mr. Gleason's most advantageous statement, from the prisoner's standpoint, concerned Thaw's change of counsel during his trial and the enthe engagement of Delphin M. Delmas as chief counsel for Thaw. This had been done at his (Gleason's) orders, he said, and was not due to a whim of se said, and was not due to a whim of Thaw's lawyer hopes that Thaw's attitude toward Stanford White was not due to delusions as the state contends, but was prompted by what Thaw knew of White's practices. Mr. Gleason has about fifty letters which he received from Thaw and they may prove to be one of the sensations of the hearing tomorrow if read. Mr. Morschauser tried to prove the charges against White today by reading parts of Evelyn Thaw's testimony at the trials. Thaw's letters to Mr. Glea-son bear upon this, it is thought. Trying to Clear a "Delusion."

Trying to clear Thaw of another lelusion." Mr. Gleason presented a report of detectives regarding an aling of this document was not made public, but it was introduced to coun-teract the state's contentions that Thaw had delusions concerning the "Monk" Eastman gang, which he be-lieved had been engaged by his ene-mies to beat and perhaps kill him, and after White's death the arciticet's friends entered into a conspiracy to "railroad his slayer to Matteawan."

If he can show that Stanford White oung girls were ruined and that an tempt really was made on his client's te. Mr. Morschauser will be able to dissipate some of the "delusion" evidence of the state. He intimates that he has some surprises in store for the remaining days of the hearing, including ten lay witnesses, who may testify as to what Thaw knew of White.

Wild Italian Interrupts Trial. The dull routine of expert testimony was jarred this afternoon by loud said that this would occupy all the shouts outside the court room: "I rest of the afternoon and want Jerome, I must see Jerome!" morrow and Friday.

Paris, Aug. 5.—A sudden official announcement that a public beheading would take place at 6.30 o'clock this (Thursday) morning in the Boulevard fronting the Sante Prison created a sensation in Paris which had not seen an execution in fifteen years. Paris, Aug. 4.—M. Hanotaux, president of the new Franco-American league, has announced the appearance of a magazine to be devoted to the development of closer relations between the two countries. He says in this connection, "The United States, some time in the future, will become the arbiter of two oceans and perhaps of two continents."

Novorossysk, Russia, Aug. 4.—Sentences were imposed today on eighteen men concerned in the attempt to establish a republic in southern Russia in 1808. Three were exiled to Siberia, two sent to hard labor for life, and thirteen sentenced to imprisonment in a fortress for six years. The court also indicted various local officials and government servants for their action against the republic during its brief existence.

SEARCHING FOR FUGITIVE. Large Posse of Vermont Men Woods Looking for Joseph Pascal.

White Plains, N. Y. Aug. 4.—Dr. MacDonald was excused and Mr. Jerome introduced two letters written by Thaw to Dennison Lyon of Pittsburg, in which Evelyn Nesbit and Stanford were mentioned. In one Thaw said: "I purposely conjure these prisoners." Stanford were mentioned. In one Thaw said: "I purposely conjure these prisoners."

The first written before his marriage spoke of "the popular babboon who really the worst rotter in America." These letters were not used at the trial, but Jerome said he considered the handwriting and arrangement significant. The district attorney then announced his case closed and Mr. Morschauser called as the first of his remaining lay witnesses John B. Gleason of New York, one of Mr. Thaw's attorneys at the first trial.

Mr. Gleason said he dictated to Thaw the letter under which crushed the chest, fractured three ribs and ruptured the aorts. It was the opinion of the physicians who performed the autopay, one of whom was Dr. S. E. Dally, one of whom was Dr. S. E. D

Mr. Gleason said he was first influenced to question the alienists by Thaw's assertions that his counsel intended to send him to Matteawan.

The witness denied that Thaw's bearing during the first trial was pompous or dictatorial or in any way irrational. He said that Thaw refused to agree to an insanity defense at his first trial. He declared his belief that Thaw was insane when he shot White.
